
DUNCANNON
APR
20
1894
O.

5000

Reg

7
7

Miss Edith Hartz

455 Forbes St Pittsburgh
Pa

PITTSBURGH, PA.
POST
R 21 1894
OFFICE
DIVIS

B. F. HARTSOUGH,

AGENT FOR

THE J. F. SEIBERLING EMPIRE MOWERS AND BINDERS, THE WALTER A. WOODS HARVESTING MACHINES, THE SUPERIOR AND EMPIRE DRILLS, THE BUCHER-GIBBS PLOWS, AND IMPERIAL OIL AND GREASE CO.'S OILS AND GREASES.

Bucks P. O., Columbiana Co., Ohio, April 19 189

My Dear Niece

we received your long looked for letter was glad to hear from you. but did not like to hear of you going to Texas Edith why are you going has some fellow Stole your heart and are going to take you off to Texas where we will never get to see you. This is a butifull warm day we have been having so much cold bad weather I have not cleaned any house yet I have engaged a girl for all Summer She is coming next week come and see us and you will not haft to work like you did last Summer I have not been very well all winter. I am all alone to day Frank is away selling Mashienery The boys are over at the other place putting in their oats: we had bad luck last week our good Jersey cow died: we have been looking for Archie have not heard from him Edith I have some of the loveliest Petunnies out in bloom I wish you could see them. Edi please excuse Franks buisness paper

Edith we enclose $1.50 for the spread there are nothing that I need very bad now money is to scarce to buy much I need a Summer dress but do not know what I want or how much we are going to Salem this morning so will half to close your Aunt & Maggie

Edith sometime when Laura is commin to Palestine Send the Bead Spread along and leave it at Sheets [illegible]